

1

p.1: Match each classroom picture with its printed word.

2

p.2: door, window, television, speaker, whiteboard, trash can.

3

p.3: There is + a singular object. Is there + a singular object?

4

p.4: Check There is / Is there and complete punctuation.

1

p.5: Yes, there is. / No, there isn't.

2

p.6: door, window, whiteboard, table, fan; no telephone on the table.

3

p.7: -ake bake/cake/lake; -ape cape/nape/tape; -ave cave/save/wave.

4

p.8: Is; there. Personal classroom answers vary.

1

p.9: door, window, television, speaker, whiteboard, trash can.

2

p.10: is, is, is, there. Reorder: There is a speaker. / Is there a window?

3

p.11: There is not a door/fan/speaker/telephone.

4

p.12: There is a door. / There is a speaker. / There is not a fan. / There is not a telephone.

Is there a door?

1

p.13: is, are, Is, there, is, isn't.

2

p.14: Is there a fan? / There is a door. / Yes, there is. / No, there isn't.

3

p.15: There is one television. / There are two fans. / There is one table. / There are two trash cans.

4

p.16: Yes, there is. / No, there isn't. / Yes, there is. / No, there isn't.